

BECAUSE LIFE DOESN'T ORGANIZE ITSELF

The Heart Behind What We Do

At Life: Sorted, our work goes beyond paperwork. Whether we're preparing your legal documents, organizing your Legacy Binder, or providing DIY templates for at-home planning, everything we do is grounded in the same mission: to make life's most important details simple, clear, and meaningful.

We believe that peace of mind is possible and that preparation, when done with compassion, is an act of love.

Our Values

Compassion First

We meet every client exactly where they are, with patience, empathy, and understanding. Whether you're tackling legal paperwork or starting your binder from scratch, we guide you gently and without judgment.

Clarity Brings Calm

When your affairs are organized, stress and uncertainty fade. We believe that clear, well-prepared plans create comfort, not just for you, but for the people you love most.

Your Voice Matters

Every document, note, and instruction reflects your choices. We make sure your voice, wishes, and values are clearly documented, whether that's in a will, a healthcare directive, or the personal notes inside your Legacy Binder.

Peace Is a Gift

Planning ahead is one of the most loving things you can do for your family. By getting things in order now, you give them freedom from confusion and the gift of clarity when it matters most.

Gentle Guidance, Always

Whether you're completing documents with our help, working through a binder consultation, or downloading a DIY guide, we move at your pace and provide steady, step-by-step support. Even the hardest tasks feel lighter when someone's guiding you through them.
